Announcing a New Master of Public Policy and Management Programme at the Universiti Brunei Darussalam

The Institute of Policy Studies at the Universiti Brunei Darussalam offers a new, internationally-focused, multidisciplinary Master of Public Policy and Management (MPPM) Programme, aiming at nurturing excellence in both policy skills and management qualities.

The Programme will be offered in January 2013.

Programme Length: 18 months (1 Year in the Universiti Brunei Darussalam and 1 Semester in a leading public policy school in the US). The Programme will be delivered by a group of international and local faculty with expertise in public policy and management.

Programme Benefits:
At the participant level, MPPM will instil policy making, policy management and leadership skills for current and future civil servants and corporate managers in Brunei and overseas. Interested students can specialise in energy & environmental policy and management. Brunei, as a resource rich country in oil, gas and tropical rainforest, can share its unique experience in policies affecting both energy and forest resources. The Programme will capitalise on this competitive global advantage of the country.

Financial Assistance: Attractive scholarships are available for qualified students.

Entry Requirements:
Normally an Upper Second Class Bachelor’s Degree in a relevant discipline from the Universiti Brunei Darussalam or a university recognised by the Senate of the UBD. A Lower Second Class Bachelor’s Degree holder with at least 3 years relevant experience will also be considered for entry. A minimum English qualification of GCE ‘O’ Level Credit 6 or IELTS 6.0 or TOEFL 550 is required. Also, a minimum Mathematics qualification of GCE ‘O’ Level Credit 6 or one “pass” in a subsequent level mathematics subject is essential.
